Dear Sir,

In reply to your advertisement in a Vancouver paper, ~~reminiscent~~ foreign going Masters certificates, ~~for~~ ~~Steamships, No 003222~~ I wish to state that I hold a Masters foreign ^{going} certificate for Steamships obtained in London England, No 003222. I have had a wide experience as officer some experience as Master.

I am best acquainted with the following trade routes:
N. & S. Atlantic, Mediterranean, East ^{India, Red Sea Ports} & West Indies, Baltic & White Sea. *I was also in the Cross Channel mail ^{trails}.
During the last war, I was Chief Officer Master in the Mercantile Fleet Auxiliary attached to the Grand Fleet. I hold the 1914-1918 war medal. I also had 3 years as Master on the British Coast from British ports to France Belgium & Germany, later returning to deep sea. the foreign trade. I am at present Surveyor of Timber Deck Cargoes at this port, but could be released from this post as there are no more vessels taking deck cargoes. Trusting ~~to hear from you~~ you may be able to place me as Master.

Yours truly

Dear Sir,

I have been given to understand that the R.C.M.F., through your dept, is inlisting master mariners with Deep Sea Certificates & experience. I have a foreign trade Masters certificate obtained in London England, & have had a wide experience as officer Master. I am 59 years of age & am ~~very~~ ^{in good health} active. ^{at present, I am} ~~for the last three years I have been~~ Authorized Surveyor of Timber & Deck Cargoes at this port.
~~On account of the war there are no more vessels to survey &~~
~~I do not expect to have any more until after the war is over.~~
I volunteered for the navy but was turned down on account of my age. I was officer Master in the Mercantile Fleet Auxiliary attached to the Grand Fleet during the last war & hold the 1914-1918 war medal.
If you think you could use my services, I would be pleased to hear from you, when convenient.

Yours truly
(Capt) R Russell
