

DEDICATION SERVICE HONOUR SACRIFICE

In days like these there is only one dedication possible — it must be to those whose names, being emblazoned upon the School's Honour Roll, are imperishably wrought into the fabric of Dominion and Empire. Last year, two hundred: this year two hundred and forty . . . and so our honour grows!

To those who have answered Sullen Moloch's highest challenge and now dwell in a light beyond our setting suns, "Where, beyond these voices, there is peace," we promise to take up the unfinished task; to match our honour with their own; and, in the mighty words of our most inspired literature, to "Withstand in the evil day; and, having done all, "TO STAND."
